

Additional evidence is needed to support your petition.

A review of the record indicates that the beneficiary has worked for your company as a TN1 nonimmigrant for approximately nine (9) years. He had previously been employed in nonimmigrant status for [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]. On January 22, 2009, you filed the current request to extend the beneficiary's TN status through March 12, 2012.

Title 8 CFR Sec. 214.6 states in part:

Canadian. . . citizens seeking temporary entry to engage in business activities at a professional level. Temporary entry, as defined in the NAFTA, means entry without the intent to establish permanent residence. The alien must satisfy the USCIS that the proposed stay is temporary. A temporary period has a reasonable, finite end that does not equate to permanent residence. In order to establish that the alien's entry will be temporary, the alien must demonstrate that his or her work assignment in the United States will end at a predictable time and he or she will depart upon completion of the assignment.

Please submit a statement regarding your temporary need for services of the beneficiary as a computer analyst. Please state how long you anticipate needing the beneficiary's services.

Please submit a statement from the beneficiary regarding his plans for permanent departure from the United States.

Submit the work contract between you and the beneficiary for the services rendered by the beneficiary.